DepEd ready to release remaining P3,000 bonus – Lapus

The Department of Education is ready for the release of the remaining P3,000 Performance Enhancement Incentive (PEI) to the respective DepEd Regional offices, effective early next week.

“We are now in the process of effecting the transfer of funds to our regional offices for the payment of the remaining bonus,” Education Secretary Jesli Lapus explained. “We thank the Department of Budget and Management for the immediate release of the funds to us.”

DepEd Finance Team expects the bonuses to reach the teachers soon after.

Meanwhile, all the regional offices were already instructed to prepare the necessary documents, such as payrolls and checks, for the immediate payment of the remaining P3,000.

“We stand firm in our commitment to our teaching and non-teaching personnel nationwide,” Lapus said. “That is to ensure that they receive their full benefits.”

Earlier, DepEd reports it already paid the initial P7,000 bonus from the National Government.
