VALUES ACROSS THE CURRICULUM

To: Undersecretaries
Assistant Secretaries
Bureau Directors
Regional Directors
Schools Division/City Superintendents
Heads, Public Elementary and Secondary Schools

1. In the effort to ensure that values education becomes an integral part of all the subject areas in the Basic Education Curriculum, the Department of Education (DepEd) through the National Educators Academy of the Philippines (NEAP) and Staff Development Division, Human Resource Development Service (SDD-HRDS) and Miriam College announces the conduct of the Values Integration Training Workshop: Values Across the Curriculum on April 28-May 2, 2003 at NEAP, Teachers Camp, Baguio City.

2. The objectives of the training workshop are to:

- a. foster in the teacher-participants a better understanding and deeper appreciation of the role and importance of values education in the total human development of their students;
- b. introduce them to the four pillars of education, the foundations of lifelong learning;
- c. exchange insights and experiences on the 2002 Basic Education Curriculum (BEC); and
- d. enable each participant to acquire skills of the valuing process and to integrate the appropriate core and related values in the different subject areas of the BEC.

3. Participants to this training workshop are fifty (50) elementary and fifty (50) secondary school teachers whose names shall be officially indorsed to the National Educators Academy of the Philippines by their respective regions and divisions. Each region should send three (3) elementary and three (3) secondary school teachers to the training workshop. g

4. Attendance to this activity shall be on official business. Expenses related to the training workshop such as board and lodging of training specialists from Miriam College, resource persons, training management staff, and participants, transportation of training specialists, transportation and per diems of resource persons and training management staff, professional fees of resource persons and training specialists, reference materials and handouts, course kits, supplies and materials, rental of function room, overtime pay of training management staff and other related training expenses shall be drawn from SDD, HRDS Training and Development Funds. The travel expenses of participants including per diems one day before and after the course shall be charged against local funds. All expenses incidental to this course shall be subject to the usual accounting and auditing rules and regulations.

5. Participants are advised to report to the training venue in the afternoon of the day before the start of the training workshop for registration, orientation and initial assessment. Participants who report in the afternoon of Day 1 shall not be allowed to proceed with the program.
