NATIONAL SEMINAR-WORKSHOP ON STRATEGIES IN TEACHING THEATER ARTS
FOR THE SPECIAL PROGRAM FOR THE ARTS (SPA) TEACHERS (YEAR 1)

The Association of Rhetoric and Theater Educators (ARTE) of the Philippines, Inc. in cooperation with the National Commission on Culture and the Arts (NCCA) will hold a National Seminar-Workshop on Strategies in Teaching Theater Arts for the Special Program for the Arts (SPA) Teachers (Year 1). This is scheduled on November 24-26, 2010 at the Leandro Locsin Theater, Ground Floor, NCCA Building, General Luna Street, Intramuros, Manila.

The seminar-workshop aims to:

- a. develop enhanced knowledge and skills in Philippine theater, stage management and directing, acting, and education for sustainable development through the theater;
- b. translate the knowledge and skills into effective strategies in teaching theater arts; and
- c. train the teacher-participants in imparting their enhanced talents, skills and knowledge to the Filipino youth who are the end-beneficiaries of the training-workshop.

The participants to this activity are the Special Program for the Arts (SPA) teachers and other theater arts teachers of the country.

A registration fee of Two Thousand Seven Hundred Pesos (PhP2,700.00) shall be charged each participant to cover the cost of snacks and lunch for three (3) days, handouts on a compact disk (CD), certificates of appearance and administrative cost.
