SEMINAR-WORKSHOP ON CLASSROOM STRATEGIES FOR CHILDREN WITH AUTISM

The AT3 Event Planning and Concepts Inc. will hold a seminar-workshop for Special Education (SPED) teachers on "Classroom Strategies for Children with Autism" at the Maryhill School of Theology, No. 62, 14th Street cor. Gilmore Avenue, New Manila, Quezon City on February 27, 2010.

The objective of the seminar-workshop is to teach strategies and classroom management. At the end of the seminar-workshop, the participants are expected to be able to conceptualize a lesson plan for inclusion as well as materials to be used on the particular session. The strategies used for the workshop are lectures, case-analysis, project-based discussion, video presentation, reflection and open forum.

The participants to this activity are the SPED teachers.

The seminar fee is One Thousand Pesos (PhP1,000.00) inclusive of lunch, a.m. and p.m. snacks, handouts and a certificate.
