SHOWING OF THE FILM “SPED HEARTS”

The Hikbi Ko Film Productions announces the showing of the film “SpED Hearts”.

This is a story about SpED teachers in a small Montessori school who are confronted with their own problems and are bound to give up life. But seeing their SPED students full of enthusiasm pursuing their own battle, these teachers are just as grateful living normal lives.

The SpED Hearts aims to correct the wrong misconception about special children and to educate every human being that surrounds them that they need really SpED hearts as well as to understand them.

This film maybe shown in schools but on a voluntary basis.
