FIRST PHILIPPINE NATIONAL SURFING CONVENTION 2010

The Department of Tourism (DOT) will hold the First Philippine National Surfing Convention 2010 on November 26-28, 2010 at the Club Manila East, Taytay, Rizal.

The convention aims to unify surfing stakeholders to effectively promote surfing as a dynamic niche market for tourism expansion, as a source of job generation, and as a solid contributor to the country's economic growth.

Expected participants to this event are surfers from the Philippines and other parts of Asia, major surfing stakeholders, surfing students and enthusiasts and the general public.

For more information, contact Ms. Elizabeth Nelle, Director, Office of Product Research and Development, DOT at telephone no.: (02) 631-2805 or through e-mail address: asiphil@gmail.com.
