SUBJECT: Role Clarification Workshop for Units under Human Resource and Organizational Development

Pursuant to the Executive Order No. 366 on the rationalization of the functions and agencies of the Executive branch, the Department of Education is currently transitioning its offices into the rationalized structure and new mandated functions. In this regard, the Bureau of Human Resource and Organizational Development (BHRD), through the Human Resource Development Division, will conduct a workshop for the role clarification of all units concerned in the areas of Human Resource and Organizational Development (HROD).

At the end of the workshop, the participants should be able to:

1. Describe human resource, administrative, and organizational development functions at the central, regional, and division levels;
2. Define roles and responsibilities of key players in the discharge of human resource, administrative, and organizational development functions at the central, regional, and division levels, in the areas of Accountabilities, Coordination, and Complementation; and
3. Update Personnel Competency Profile and Job Descriptions of HR positions at the Regional Offices.

The workshop will last for a total of three (3) days, exclusive of travel time. The table in the following page contains the composition of participants, schedule of workshops, and the identified host region per cluster. For the workshop design, please see Enclosure #1.

Travel expenses of the participants from the Regional and Schools Division Offices shall be charged against local funds, while the board and lodging of all participants, CO staff, and resource persons, travel expenses of CO participants and staff, supplies and materials, honoraria and traveling expenses of resource persons, and contingency and incidental expenses for all activities shall be charged against FY 2016 OSEC-GAS funds, subject to existing COA and accounting rules and regulations.
