PROJECT PROGRESS OF THE BUSINESS ECONOMICS ASSOCIATION OF THE UNIVERSITY OF ASIA AND THE PACIFIC

The Business Economics Association of the University of Asia and the Pacific (UA&P) will conduct its Project Progress with the theme Bayanihan: Embracing Progress in Peripheries from February 10 to 11, 2017 at the UA&P, Pearl Drive, Ortigas Center, Pasig City.

The Project aims to:

- a. test the participants' level of understanding on economic ideas and concepts by providing an avenue through which they can apply their academic training;
- b. advance national development and nation-building by holding discussions which feature simplified economic concepts, highlighting the people as the heart of the field through avenues which put the youth at the forefront of active collaborations and discussions; and
- c. pursue such development endeavors through a fun, youthful, relevant, and professional platform.

The target participants are Grades 9 and 10 students from both public and private secondary schools.
