DECS O R D E R
No. 111, s. 1990

DESIGNATING THE LIMITS OF RESPONSIBILITY AND AREAS
AND COOPERATION BETWEEN THE BUREAU OF SECONDARY EDUCATION AND THE BUREAU OF TECHNICAL AND VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

To: Bureau Directors
Regional Directors
Directors of Services/Centers and Heads of Units
School Superintendents
Presidents, State Colleges and Universities
Heads of Private Schools, Colleges and Universities
Vocational School Superintendents/Administrators

1. Batas Pambansa Big. 232 otherwise known as the Education Act of 1992 assigned the responsibility of continuing the general education started at the elementary level to the Bureau of Secondary Education while the Bureau of Technical and Vocational Education was directed to strengthen and improve the quality of technical vocational education as a regular offering of the central educational system.
2. DECS Order No. 26, s. 1987 assigned the responsibility over post-secondary certificate courses to the Bureau of Technical and Vocational Education.
3. To avoid duplication of efforts of the Bureau of Secondary Education and the Bureau of Technical and Vocational Education insofar as administration and supervision of vocational courses are concerned, areas of responsibility are delineated as follows:
 - a. The Bureau of Technical and Vocational Education shall be responsible for schools offering or have been authorized to offer post-secondary technical-vocational courses.
 - b. The Bureau of Secondary Education shall be responsible for vocational high schools not offering post-secondary courses.
 - c. TIVE assistance shall be solicited by the BSE in the enrichment of the Technology and Home Economics (THE) component of the New Secondary Education Curriculum (NSECY).

d. The DECE shall assist in the implementation of other areas of NSIC in the high school department of post-secondary technical-vocational institutions. Likewise, these institutions shall be recipients of DECE books and other instructional materials.

4. Immediate and wide dissemination of this Order is desired.

(SGD.) ISIDRO D. CARINO
