Heads and Principals of Secondary Schools

1. The Department of Education, in partnership with the Southeast Asia Interdisciplinary Development Institute (SAIDI) is providing twenty (20) masteral scholarships for secondary teachers to further hone themselves as trainers in English with the use of technology. The Masters Degree in Instruction Development and Technology (MA ID. & T) will run for two summers and ten months starting May, 2004 and to end in May 2005.
2. The scholarship program for sustainable technology integration (SUSTECH) seeks to address the need of teachers to use ICT through a research based immersion program, and fulfill the following objectives;
  - to provide an opportunity for professional development ;
  - to acquire knowledge and skills at integrating various technologies in classroom teaching;
  - to create a community of practice in Instructional Development and Technology (ID & T) among new and young basic education teachers;
  - to earn a Master of Arts Degree in Instructional Development and Technology
  - to train mentors in school-based setting in support of the NEPP AND to serve as division/regional trainers.
3. Each DepEd region is allotted one (1) scholar who shall meet the criteria for selection as specified in the DepED Inclosure. For further information please contact Ms. Perla Sunga Intia or Ms. Alice Panares in Telefax No. 638-86-38. Deadline of submission of applicants for scholarship is on March 30, 2004.
4. Immediate and wide dissemination of this Memorandum is desired.
