DepED MEMORANDUM
No. 199, s. 2005

CULTURAL EDUCATION LESSON EXEMPLARS (CELEX) MONITORING

To: Bureau Directors
Regional Directors
Schools Division/City Superintendents
Heads, Public Elementary and Secondary Schools

1. The Department of Education (DepED) through the Center for Cultural Education (CCE) will be monitoring teachers of Cultural Education Lesson Exemplars (CELEX) pilot schools of the regions on the CELEX implementation from July to November, 2005.
2. The CELEX monitoring is designed to:
 - a. orient supervisors, principals and teacher coordinators of CELEX pilot schools on the Concept Process Observation Instrument and Complex Performance Assessment Instruments;
 - b. provide venue for discussions of problems, issues and concerns in the CELEX implementation; and
 - c. identify CELEX pilot schools that could be partners of excellence for traditional arts of the region.
3. The monitoring will be in two phases:
 - a. Phase I will be CELEX pilot schools that were not monitored due to strong typhoons, tsunami, and late implementation of their regional lakbay and regional teacher training; and
 - b. Phase 2 will be CELEX pilot schools that could be host schools for traditional arts of the region.
4. The list of host schools for the monitoring briefing and the monitoring schedule are enclosed.
5. Funds for this purpose to be incurred by CCE staff shall be charged to OSEC funds while those to be incurred by regional/division participants related to this activity shall be charged to local funds subject to availability and the usual accounting and auditing rules and regulations.
6. Immediate dissemination of this Memorandum is desired.
