PASANG KRUS

The Exogain Corporation announces the showing of the film "Pasang Krus", a movie about the hardship and difficulties encountered by a family that suffered injustice and eventually led to the separation of the two siblings and the hardship of a mother of keeping her family intact while raising them in poverty. The strong spirit of hope imbedded in her heart that later prospered with the unity of her lost siblings and a better life.

The viewing of the film aims to rekindle among the youth the importance of the values of love for family and hope to better the society and emanate these values.

The high school students are invited to watch the movie.
