13TH INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE OF JAPANESE STUDIES

The Ateneo de Manila University (AdMU) School of Sciences will conduct the 13th International Conference of Japanese Studies with the theme 3.11 Disaster of Japan: Vulnerability, Loss and Social Transformation on January 25-26, 2013 at the Ricardo Leong Auditorium, AdMU Loyola Heights, Quezon City.

The Conference aims to provide the participants with information on the following issues:

1. risk and vulnerability which deal with pre-existing issues of Japanese society;
2. displacement and loss which include the problem of the loss of connectedness and the consequent loss of self; and
3. recovery and resilience which address post-disaster transformation and possible future of Japanese society.

The participants to this activity are scholars and educators who are interested in the issue of disaster related to Japan.

Participation of both public and private schools shall be subject to the no-disruption-of-classes policy as stipulated in DepEd Order No. 9, s. 2005 entitled Instituting Measures to Increase Engaged Time-on-Task and Ensuring Compliance Therewith.
