THE SOUND OF HEALING: THE SECOND MUSIC THERAPY CONFERENCE
IN THE PHILIPPINES OF ST. PAUL UNIVERSITY MANILA

The St. Paul University Manila (SPUM), through its College of Music and Performing Arts (CMPA), will host The Sound of Healing: The Second Music Therapy Conference in the Philippines from July 28 to 30, 2016 at SPUM CMPA, Pedro Gil, Malate, Manila.

The Conference aims to:

1. enable the participants to develop potentials and/or restore functions of differently challenged individuals under their care, so that they can achieve better intra- and inter-personal integration;
2. help them develop a better quality of life for the differently challenged individuals through prevention, rehabilitation or treatment through music therapy; and
3. enable them to unravel the meaningful service provided by Music Therapy to help and enrich the life of people with special needs.

The target participants are the learners, professionals, researchers and members of development organizations especially those who are engaged in helping the differently challenged people.

Participation of both public and private schools shall be subject to the no-disruption-of-classes policy stipulated in DepEd Order No. 9, s. 2005 entitled Instituting Measures to Increase Engaged Time-on-Task and Ensuring Compliance Therewith. This is also subject to the no-collection policy as stated in Section 3 of Republic Act No. 5546, An Act Prohibiting the Sale of Tickets and/or the Collection of Contributions for Whatever Project or Purpose from Students and Teachers of Public and Private Schools, Colleges and Universities (Ganzon Law).
