THE 2017 INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON APPLIED
LINGUISTICS AND LANGUAGE EDUCATION

The Department of English and Applied Linguistics, in collaboration with Br. Andrew Gonzales FSC College of Education of De La Salle University (DLSU), will conduct The 2017 International Conference on Applied Linguistics and Language Education (ICALLE 2017) with the theme Applied Linguistics and Language Teaching: Research, Theory, Pedagogy, and Practice from February 9 to 11, 2017 at the De La Salle University, Manila.

The objectives of the Conference are to:

1. share findings of applied linguistic research and their implications for and applications to language education in different contexts;
2. facilitate the sharing of ideas about how applied linguistics can help language education foster enduring understanding among learners across levels—elementary, secondary, and college/university;
3. update participants with innovative methods and strategies in teaching a language and assessing language learning; and
4. help them establish a network of applied linguists and language educators throughout the world.

The target participants are K to 12 English teachers, English coordinators, school principals, teacher-trainers, and higher education institutions (HEIs) offering teacher education.

Participation of both public and private schools shall be subject to the no-disruption-of-classes policy stipulated in DepEd Order No. 9, s. 2005 entitled Instituting Measures to Increase Engaged Time-on-Task and Ensuring Compliance Therewith.
