THIRD MINING ENGINEERING AND GEOLOGY ASSOCIATION MONTH

The Adamson University Mining Engineering and Geology Students Association (AUMEGA) will hold its Third Mining Engineering and Geology Association (MEGA) Month with the theme Mining and Geosciences: Partners in Transforming the Society with different activities on the following dates with respective venues:

Activity	Date	Venue
Opening Ceremony and Research Congress	January 10-11, 2017	OZ AVR
Geology Quiz Bee	January 23, 2017
Mining Quiz Bee	January 25, 2017
High School Quiz Bee and Essay Writing	January 28, 2017
After Shock Mineral Identification Bee	January 30, 2017	OZ AVR/ University Grounds
Mining Symposium and Closing Ceremony	January 30, 2017	OZ AVR/ Adamson Theater
Intensity: Mining and Geology Exhibit	January 10-13 and 23-27, 2017	ST Quadrangle

The Celebration aims to:

1. enable the participants to realize the contributions of mining and geosciences to the society;
2. provide them with platforms for the strong reduction of misconceptions about the mining industry; and
3. boost their academic excellence through quiz bees, conferences, symposia and other activities while promoting mining engineering and geosciences as future viable careers.

The participants are the learners, administrators, academicians from both public and private secondary schools, and college and industry personnel.
