SECOND NATIONAL CONVENTION CUM STUDENT LEADERS' SUMMIT
ON CLIMATE CHANGE ADAPTATION AND DISASTER
RISK MITIGATION

The Students' Actions Vital to the Environment and Mother Earth Movement will hold the 2nd National Convention Cum Student Leaders' Summit on Climate Change Adaptation and Disaster Risk Mitigation on January 29-31, 2010 at the Boracay EcoVillage Resort and Training Center, Yapak Boracay Island, Malay, Aklan.

The theme of the convention is "Climate Change: A Call for School and Collective Action for Adaptation and Disaster Risk Mitigation".

The convention aims to:

- a. partner and gather major institutions and stakeholders on the issue of climate change and disaster risk mitigation;
- b. facilitate an open presentation and exchange of ideas among the stakeholders with the end of crafting a practical climate change adaptation strategy and disaster risk mitigation initiatives that are doable in a personal/organizational/institutional level;
- c. facilitate the presentation of participants as regard to what their institutions are doing or planning to do in order to address climate change and mitigate the risk of disasters at least in the campuses;
- d. craft a collective and common program that can be implemented in the different formal learning institutions for climate change adaptation and disaster mitigation;
- e. organize the "Disaster Management Volunteers of the Philippines" to bring together volunteers on disaster management in the learning institutions and communities;
- f. renew the commitment and dedication of the youth and student leaders in the defense of life and its sustaining elements; and
- g. craft a declaration that will spell out the core advocacy for climate change adaptation and disaster risk mitigation and serve as rallying point among stakeholders in the campuses.

The expected participants are Student Council (Government) Officers and Advisers, Student Publications Advisers and Officials-in-Charge on Student Safety and Security.

A registration fee of Three Thousand Five Hundred Pesos (PhP3,500.00) shall be charged each participant inclusive of accommodation and food, certificates, and convention kit.
