2010 SUMMER TRAINING SEMINAR FOR SOCIAL SCIENCE TEACHERS

The College of Social Sciences and Philosophy (CSSP), University of the Philippines (UP) Diliman, Quezon City will hold the 2010 Summer Training Seminar for Social Science Teachers on April 13-16, 2010 at the CSSP Audio Visual Room, Palma Hall Room 207, U.P. Diliman, Quezon City with the theme Typhoons, Earthquakes and Other Natural Hazards: The Role of the Social Sciences in Disaster Risk Reduction.

The training seminar aims to:

- a. develop and enhance teacher capabilities in social science research and teaching; and in particular; knowledge on contemporary social processes and issues, and updates on theories and methods;
- b. enhance understanding of the current issues, perspectives, and methodologies in the different disciplines of the social sciences for use in teaching, research, and professional practice;
- c. update knowledge on social, economic, political, cultural and other issues such as development and governance at national, regional, and local contexts considering its relevance to social science education, research, and professional practice; and
- d. develop increased capacities in social science research and education for knowledge generation and problem solving relevant to the region.

The social studies teachers from both elementary and secondary schools are invited to attend this activity.

A registration fee of Four Thousand Pesos (PhP4,000.00) will be charged each participant which covers the abstract of papers, lunch (4), snacks (8) and a certificate of participation.
