AN INVITATION TO THE ENVIRONMENT ONLINE (ENO)
TREE PLANTING DAY 2010

The Environment Online (ENO) Programme Association based in Joensuu, Finland invites schools, children and youth groups to plant trees for biodiversity and sustainable future. ENO Tree Planting Day 2010 will take place globally in 150 countries on May 21, 2010.

ENO is a global virtual school and network for sustainable development where schools around the world study same environmental topics, do concrete deeds for environment and share their learning results in their local communities and worldwide on the web. About 5,000 schools in 150 countries are taking part in these activities. The ENO Programme started 10 years ago and its headquarters is located in Finland.

The themes cover forests, water, climate change, ecological footprint and cultural issues.
