DECEMBER SCIENTIFIC SEMINAR, YEAR END REFLECTION AND PRE-CHRISTMAS FELLOWSHIP ACTIVITY OF THE PHILIPPINE SCHOOL HEALTH OFFICERS' ASSOCIATION (PSHOA), INC.

The Philippine School Health Officers' Association (PSHOA), Inc. will hold its December Scientific Seminar, Year-End Reflection, and Pre-Christmas Fellowship with the theme "PSHOA, F.I.E.S.T.A. (Faithful In Establishing School Health's Total Advancement)" on December 3, 2011, 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. at the Center for Education and Arts of GlaxoSmithKline (GSK) Philippines along Chino Roces Avenue Extension, Makati City.

The activity aims to:

1. establish continuing faith and commitment towards promotion and advancement of school health in general and the comprehensive role facing the school health officer today in particular;
2. provide the participants a forum for further scientific enrichment in establishing a more responsive school health agenda, particularly in medical, dental concerns and preventive wellness;
3. manifest sincere faith and thanksgiving to the Greatest Healer, the Heavenly Father, and earnestly reflect on the Christmas spirit; and
4. bolster camaraderie among the members, guests, and participants through a fiesta atmosphere of games, talents and entertainment ala-Paskong Pinoy.

All interested DepEd health personnel are invited to join and participate in this activity.

Each participant will be charged a registration fee of Six Hundred Pesos (Php600.00) to cover miscellaneous operating expenses for the event.
