SEARCH FOR THE 2012 PEACE AND COOPERATION SCHOOL AWARD

The Peace and Cooperation Foundation, in cooperation with the Office of the Human Rights of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Cooperation in Spain and the Football Club of Villarreal will conduct the Search for the 2012 Peace and Cooperation School Award with the theme “Sport is the Key to Understanding and Peace (“Paz Escolar 2012-El Deporte como llave para el Entendimiento y la Paz”).”

The categories and rules of the search are as follows:

Category	Age of Contestant	Rules
1. Drawing	Up to 6 years old	Draw how you imagine a sports competition among all countries in the world.
2. Poster and Slogan	7 to 12 years old	The UN Office on Sports for Development and Peace (UNOSDP) defines sport as: “Every activity that contributes to physical skill, mental well-being and social interaction, such as games, recreation, organized or competitive sports and local sports and games.” What would be yours? What is sport for you?
3. Mural	13 to 15 years old	The UN play a very important role in the promotion of sport in relation to the Millennium Goals. Make a mural showing these values and the possibility of a fairer and more generous world.
4. Comic	16 to 18 years old	Let’s make a team to reach the Millennium Goals! Many famous football players have already tried. We suggest you to make your own team and represent it in a comic. The world needs your ideas!
5. Teachers videos		Something like a World Cup, Superbowl, Six Nations, American Cup, Formula 1, etc. Send a video or some photos of a creative anthem to cheer on the players.

The works can be submitted in using any of the six (6) official languages: Arabic, Chinese, Spanish, French, English or Russian on or before July 3, 2012 to the Office of Peace and Cooperation in Madrid by regular mail or e-mail. The address and contact numbers are the following:
