A NUMBER OF SEMINARS RELATIVE TO K TO 12 PROGRAM

The Center for Continuing Education for Teachers (CCET), Inc. will conduct A Number of Seminars Relative to K to 12 Program with the theme “The K to 12 Connection: Issues on Instruction and Curriculum Development” on April 21-28, 2012 at the University of Santo Tomas (UST)-AMV Building, España Street, Sampaloc, Manila.

The Seminar aims to:

1. educate and instill awareness among the participants on the implications of K to 12 Program in classroom teaching;
2. identify the K to 12 thrusts in the areas of language education, Mathematics, Natural Science and Technical-Vocational (Tech-Voc) Education courses; and
3. prepare the teachers and other stakeholders who are directly affected in the K to 12 Program transition.

The target participants to this activity are the teachers in all curricular disciplines and levels, and other stakeholders.

Each participant will be charged any of the following registration fees inclusive of food, snacks and session handouts, however, the CCET members are given ten percent (10%) discount:

Registrant	Fee
1. Early Registrant	PhP1,000.00
2. On-site Registrant	PhP1,200.00
