NATIONAL WORKSHOP ON TEST DEVELOPMENT

The Eins Review and Statistical Consultancy Center will hold the National Workshop on Test Development with the theme “Incorporating Technology in Test Development Cycle” at the University of the Philippines (UST) Library-EdTech Center, UST, Manila. The schedule of the activities are as follows:

Module	Date/Time
Best Practices in Test Development Cycle	May 9, 2012 (9:00 a.m.-4:30 p.m.)
Computerized Test/Item Analysis: Classical Test Theory and Modern Test Theory	May 10, 2012 (9:00 a.m.-4:30 p.m.)
Computerized Item Banking, Test Assembly and Scoring	May 11, 2012 (9:00 a.m.-4:30 p.m.)

The workshop aims to train the target participants to use computer software in managing the entire test development cycle, particularly on items analysis, item banking, test assembly and test scoring. It also provides a venue for discussing the best practices in test development cycle.

This activity is designed for schools superintendents, supervisors, principals, deans, teachers/professors from basic education and higher education institutions, test developers, psychometricians and professionals from allied disciplines.

Each participant shall be charged a registration fee of Six Thousand Pesos (PhP6,000.00) if payment is made on or before April 25, 2012 and Nine Thousand Pesos (PhP9,000.00) if payment is made beyond April 25, 2012 to cover expenses for certificate of participation/attendance, handouts, seminar bag, and installer of software. Payments may be made through Bank of the Philippine Islands (BPI) under the name of Eins Review and Statistical Consultancy Center with Savings Account No.: 004713-0565-91. It is advised that deposit slip shall be faxed to (044) 670-0162 or e-mail scanned copy to sales@einsph.com.
