NATIONAL CONFERENCE FOR LIBRARIANS

The Naga College Foundation Learning Resource Center will hold the National Conference for Librarians with the theme “Library Management in the Philippine Setting: Principles and Best Practices” on August 16-17, 2012 at the Villa Caceres Hotel, Naga City. A free half-day City tour will conclude on the 2nd day of the conference.

The Conference aims to:

1. provide a venue for the librarians in the Philippines to discuss the current and best practices among libraries in providing services with the aid of information technology;
2. know and share thoughts and ideas on the importance of professional organizations relevant to effective library management; and
3. acquaint themselves with the current rules and principles in organizing information resources which would lead to effective library management and services.

The target participants to this activity are the librarians from both public and private schools nationwide.

Each participant shall be charged a registration fee of Two Thousand Five Hundred Pesos (PhP2,500.00) inclusive of meals (lunch and snacks), conference bag, conference papers and certificates. For more information, interested participants may contact:
