NOMINATION OF EXEMPLARY FILIPINO STUDENTS TO RECEIVE A BOOK AWARD FROM DARTMOUTH COLLEGE IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

The EducationUSA Philippines team is a United States (US) Department of State-funded advising network with more than 175 centers in different regions of the world. It announces the nomination of exemplary Filipino students to receive an award from Dartmouth College, a higher education institution in the USA, and one of the Ivy Leagues. .

The Dartmouth College has an Alumni Club Book Award Program, which aims to:

1. recognize and reward high school students who have excelled both academically and in their extracurricular activities, and
2. encourage these talented young students to consider pursuing their higher education in this college.

A successful nominee must possess the qualifications:

1. belong to the Top 10 percent of their class,
2. demonstrate strong character,
3. have made a positive contribution to the school community,
4. excel in at least one nonacademic area, and
5. be a candidate for entrance to a competitive college or university.

School teachers and advisers, with the recommendation of their school heads, will nominate their outstanding students to be the Book Award recipients who are potential candidates for the next Dartmouth class opening.
