2010 NATIONAL SCIENCE CLUB MONTH (NSCM) CELEBRATION

The Philippine Society of Youth Science Clubs (PSYSC) announces the holding of the 2010 National Science Club Month (NSCM) Celebration for all science clubs in all elementary and secondary schools nationwide pursuant to Presidential Proclamation No. 264, which declares September of every year as the National Science Club Month (NSCM).

The theme of this year's celebration is "Kids of the New Decade: Moving Beyond the Science Clubbing Continuum".

The activities during the celebration include the PSYSC Science Olympiad (PSO), an inter-schools quiz competition. This is open to elementary pupils and secondary students nationwide, and has a National Eliminations scheduled on September 4, 2010. Those who will qualify on the top 20 all over the Philippines will join the National Finals on September 25, 2010 at the SM Mall of Asia.

The PSO National Eliminations will take place in host schools located in Olongapo, Cebu, La Union, Cagayan de Oro and National Capital Region (NCR).
