INVITATION TO THE 9TH ASIA-EUROPE CLASSROOM NETWORK (AEC-NET) CONFERENCE

The Asia-Europe Foundation (ASEF) in collaboration with St. Mark's Senior Secondary Public School, Meera Bagh and the Ministry of Human Resource Development (MHRD) will hold the 9th Asia-Europe Classroom Network (AEC-NET) Conference on November 12-16, 2010 at the Gurgaon NCR of Delhi, India.

Carrying the theme "Climate Change and Biodiversity: How Are They Connected and the Impact of Biodiversity Losses in the Community in Asia and Europe", the conference aims to:

- a. foster collaborations among secondary and high school teachers and students in Asia and Europe;
- b. promote understanding on the value of biodiversity; and
- c. raise awareness of conserving biodiversity in the community through teachers/educators and students in Asia and Europe.

Interested participants may apply at http://aec.asef.org/register/participate_conference.asp. The deadline for registration is on September 15, 2010.

The organizers will cover all local costs in connection with the conference (including four (4) nights accommodation, meals, local transport, and other costs to be incurred during the programme). However, participants are requested to cover the travel costs to and from New Delhi, India either on their own, or with the support of their secondary/high schools or other agencies.
