UNESCO NEXT GENERATION OF TEACHERS: SECOND PHILIPPINE CONFERENCE ON INFORMATION AND COMMUNICATION
TECHNOLOGY (ICT) IN EDUCATION

The De La Salle University (DLSU), University of the Philippines (UP), University of the East (UE), Cebu Normal University (CNU) and Mariano Marcos State University (MMSU) in collaboration with the Intel Philippines and United Nation Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO)-Bangkok will conduct the UNESCO Next Generation of Teachers: Second Philippine Conference on Information and Communication Technology (ICT) in Education on October 26-29, 2010 at the Mariano Marcos State University (MMSU), Batac City, Ilocos Norte.

With the theme, “Empowering Teachers for the Changing Educational, Social and Technological Environment in ICT”, this conference aims to:

- a. enhance the participants’ skills in ICT integration in teaching and learning;
- b. provide an avenue for sharing a comprehensive range of issues on ICT in education, lessons learned and best practices on ICT used in the classroom;
- c. explore further potential of ICT in raising standards of education through review of researches, programs and initiatives of various organizations and institutions, educators and other stakeholders;
- d. provide a platform for collaborative efforts towards the design and formulation of effective policies to support the effective use of ICT in education; and
- e. strengthen professional networking among researchers, policy makers, ICT specialists and educators.

The participants to this activity are ICT teachers, school administrators, researchers, and officials and representatives from related educational institutions from both public and private schools.

A registration fee of Four Thousand Five Hundred Pesos (PhP4,500.00) will be charged to each participant to cover meals, conference kits and cultural tour of selected tourist destinations in the Ilocos region.
