INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON MOTHER TONGUE-BASED MULTILINGUAL EDUCATION ENDEAVOR

The Institute of Education Development and Innovation for Community Mobilization (IEDICM) will conduct the International Conference on Mother Tongue-Based Multilingual Education Endeavor with the theme, "Benchmarking: Mother-Tongue-Based Multilingual Education: Development, Practices and Challenges in the 21st Century in Asia Pacific," on January 18-20, 2011 at the Urdaneta City University, Urdaneta City, Pangasinan.

The objectives of the conference are to:

- a. provide a comprehensive source of new data which will increase knowledge and information on global process and perspective on MTMLE;
- b. share teaching experiences and collective endeavors toward the development of strong MTMLE program;
- c. formulate an international framework or model covering diverse experiences and culture relating to MT-MLE;
- d. identify MT-MLE stakeholders;
- e. create collaborative programs that promote institutional linkages for sustainable development; and
- f. develop an action plan for Asia Pacific Educators to foster MTMLE programs.

The participants to this conference are educators, practitioners, researchers, basic education teachers, graduate students, directors, superintendents and heads of schools and universities from Asia Pacific.

The registration fees are as follows:
