ASIAN REGIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR HOME ECONOMICS
16th BIENNIAL INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS

The Asian Regional Association for Home Economics (ARAHE) with the cooperation of the Philippine Association for Home Economics in Stage Colleges and Universities (PAHESCU, Inc.) will hold its 16th Biennial International Congress with the theme, “Towards a More Sustainable, Commitment-Based, Family-Focused Perspective in Addressing Global Issues” on July 25-29, 2011 at the Asian Institute of Management Conference Center Manila (ACCM) in Makati City.

The objectives of the activity are to:

- a. highlight the significance of the roles of Home Economists, not only in national development, but also as dynamic, pro-active participants in meeting challenges affecting families and households; and
- b. promote cultural heritage through research, professional exchanges, networking and amity, thus strengthening better relations and understanding among participating countries.

The congress is open to all individuals or groups interested in Home Economics.
