

DepED ADVISORY No. 389, s. 2010
in compliance with DepED Order No. 39, s. 2009
this advisory is issued for the information of DepEd officials and personnel
(Visit DepED website at www.deped.gov.ph)
November 23, 2010

SEMINAR ON INCLUSION: DISSOLVING THE BOUNDARIES FOR CHILDREN WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

The School of Education and Human Development of the University of Asia and the Pacific (UAP) will conduct a one-day seminar on Inclusion: Dissolving the Boundaries for Children with Special Needs on January 29, 2011 at the PLDT Hall, APEC Communications Building, University of Asia and the Pacific, Ortigas Center, Pasig City.

The seminar aims to:

- a. bring together the expertise of educators who have taken inclusion as one of their advocacies in helping and teaching regular children, children with special needs and their families;
- b. provide the participants with a working knowledge of the concept of inclusion; and
- c. reinforce the idea that inclusion is all about belonging and participating in a diverse society.

The participants to this seminar are teachers from both public and private schools.

The seminar fee, which will be charged to each participant includes snacks, lunch, seminar kit and a certificate of participation, is as follows:

Participants	Registration Fee
Early Registrants (on or before January 15, 2011)	PhP2,500.00
Registrants after January 15, 2011	PhP2,000.00
Undergraduate students (50% discount)	PhP1,250.00
Graduate students	PhP2,000.00

For more information, contact Ms. Josephine Teves at telephone no.: (02) 634-2828 or through e-mail address: mjteves@uap.edu.ph or Dr. Angel Antonio at e-mail address: aantonio@uap.edu.ph.