AMIGO

The Origin8 Media Corporation announces the showing of the film, AMIGO. This film is about the Philippine-American war in the 1900s written and directed by American filmmaker under John Sayles.

The film tackles a part of the Philippine history that has never been portrayed in moving images before. Hence, it would be a great learning experience for Filipinos who will watch it.

The story resonates intellectually and emotionally with Filipinos who have seen this film, because it represents the Filipino point of views as much as the American.

The students from secondary schools are invited to view the film to be shown nationwide.
