BASIC LIFE SUPPORT SEMINAR

The Metropolitan Medical Center College of Arts, Science and Technology (MMCCAST) offers a free training/seminar in Basic Life Support to all public and private high school students nationwide.

The seminar aims to prepare the high school students in calamity and disaster preparedness campaign and for them to become useful citizens and globally competitive professionals in the field of Medical Tourism.

The seminar will be led by the MMCCAST's registered nurses and will provide the necessary tools and equipment to be used during the seminar.

The training/seminar will be held at the MMCCAST campus at 1357 G. Masangkay St., Sta. Cruz, Manila, 1003 on all Saturdays from September 2011 to February 2012 from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon for the morning session and from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. for the afternoon session.

For more information regarding this activity, contact Ms. Josephine M. Bonnevie, Development Officer, MMCCAST, at telephone nos.: (02) 253-8589 and (02) 256-4447 local 8311/7159 or send a message through e-mail address: info@metro.edu.ph or www.metro.edu.ph.
