WORLD CAMP PHILIPPINES 2011 OF THE INTERNATIONAL YOUTH FELLOWSHIP (IYF)

The International Youth Fellowship (IYF) Philippines will hold the IYF World Camp Philippines on October 24-27, 2011 at the Cuneta Astrodome, Pasay City.

The IYF World Camp is one of the core programs of IYF in which various individuals, especially those who belong to the youth sector, come together with the following objectives:

1. to challenge the personal limits of the participants;
2. to change the participants' perspectives and mindsets; and
3. to develop cohesion among them as they change the world for the better.

Various activities have been lined up during the event, which include lectures of notable speakers, mind lecture by the Founder of IYF, cultural performances, musical concert by Gracias Choir, short distance marathon, mini-Olympic, IYF Academy, cultural exhibit, educational tour among others.

Estimated number of participants is 3,700 (3,000 local; 700 foreign).

The Department of Tourism (DOT) is supporting this event by providing tourist information materials, guided tour in Intramuros for 300 participants, inclusion of their promotional article in the DOT website, as well as assistance in the area of airport reception and facilitation.
