STUDENT-LEADERS CONGRESS

The Center for Learning and Teaching Styles (CLTS), Philippines will conduct the the One Nation Learning (ONL) national advocacy caravan entitled Student Leaders Congress with the theme “Achievers of Today! Gearing Up for the Bigger World”. In this connection, a series of one-day seminar will be held on the following dates in the different provinces (specific venues are still being finalized):

Date	Province
June 21, 2012	Romblon
June 23, 2012	Oriental Mindoro
June 25, 2012	Marinduque
June 27, 2012	Occidental Mindoro
June 29, 2012	Palawan

The caravan aims to advocate the need for education stakeholders to embrace the belief that between hope and despair, education is the greatest equalizer. Indeed, there is a need to teach and learn beyond the curriculum by teaching the compassionate heart and nurture character.

The topics to be discussed in the seminar are the following:

1. Keeping Up with the K to 12 School;
2. Becoming Masters of Your Own Destinies;
3. Making You Proud National Citizens, yet Competitive in the Global Workforce;
4. Breaking the Walls of Ignorance, Myth and Complacency;
5. Learning Beyond the Four Walls of the Classroom;
6. Nurturing the Compassionate Heart and Building Personal Character;
7. Personal Branding for Future Career Success;
8. Communicating Beyond the Syntax of Language; and
9. Realizing One Humanity Sharing and Enriching the Earth.

This activity is designed for high school student-leaders, guidance counselors, students affairs’ coordinators, and youth welfare workers.
