SERIES OF NATIONAL SEMINAR-WORKSHOPS ON MOTHER
TONGUE-BASED MULTILINGUAL EDUCATION (MTB-MLE)
PRINCIPLES AND PRACTICES

The Arczone Professional Development Center will conduct a series of National Seminar-Workshops on Mother Tongue-Based Multilingual Education (MTB-MLE) Principles and Practices with the theme “Towards Ownership of Knowledge through Mother Tongue-Based Multilingual Education.”

The Seminar-Workshops aims to:

1. introduce to the participants the principles of MTB-MLE to public and private elementary and secondary school teachers, administrators, curriculum planners and instructional developers;
2. demonstrate to them the strategies in integrating MTB-MLE principles in the teaching of the different learning areas; and
3. assist them in developing lessons and instructional materials using MTB-MLE principles.

The target participants to this activity are elementary and high school teachers, administrators, curriculum developers and instructional material writers.

For more information, interested participants may contact:
