INTERNATIONAL RESEARCH CONFERENCE FOR GLOBALIZATION AND SUSTAINABILITY

The West Visayas State University (WVSU) in cooperation with the various educational agencies in the Philippines and abroad will hold the International Research Conference for Globalization and Sustainability on August 14-16, 2012 at the Sarabia Manor Hotel, Iloilo City.

The conference with the strands that include the Nature, Economy, Well-being and Society aims to:

1. disseminate, share, and discuss research findings which address the challenges of globalization and sustainability; and
2. strengthen partnership among researchers for sustained sharing of knowledge, experiences and best practices.

The target participants to this activity are teachers, teacher-educators, instructional supervisors, department heads, principals, district supervisors, schools superintendents, assistant schools superintendents, regional directors, assistant regional directors and other Department of Education (DepEd) officials who are directly involved in research that would move them for globalization and sustainability.
