NATIONAL SEMINAR ON REFRAMING OF LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE TEACHING IN THE PHILIPPINES: NEW STANDARDS, NEW GOALS, NEW ENVIRONMENTS

The Alliance of Language and Literature Teachers (ALLT), Inc. will hold the National Seminar on Reframing of Language and Literature Teaching in the Philippines: New Standards, New Goals, New Environments on September 21-22, 2012 at the Venezia Hotel, Building 675 Canal Road, Subic Bay Freeport Zone, SBMA, Olongapo City.

The Seminar aims to:

- a. provide language and literature teacher-participants in the Philippines in order to further their insights on the Framework of K to 12 in teaching language and literature;
- b. deliver to them updates on the status of implementation of the new Framework;
- c. help them manage the transition in teaching language and literature in various contexts; and
- d. enable them to plan strategies and actions for language and literature teaching towards the present and the future of the K to 12 in the Philippines.

The target participants to this activity are teachers from both public and private schools in all levels, school heads/administrators, undergraduate and graduate students and other interested individuals.
