NATIONAL TRAINING SEMINAR ON PUBLIC MANAGEMENT AND LEADERSHIP

The Center for Governance and Public Administration (CGPA) will hold its National Training Seminar on Public Management and Leadership with the theme “Strengthening the Public Sector Through Effective Management and Leadership” from November 30 to December 2, 2012 at the AA Hotel, Puerto Princesa City, Palawan.

The Training-Seminar aims to:

1. explore discussions on both theories and practices of public management;
2. relate implications of leadership and management in the public sector;
3. discuss the importance of education, environment and technology to public management; and
4. create a distinction in management practices between public and private entities.

The target participants to this activity are the education supervisors, district supervisors, principals, school heads and teachers from both public and private schools, department heads from various government agencies including local government units (LGUs) and other public sector personnel.
