SPANISH PROGRAM FOR CULTURAL COOPERATION

The Spanish Program for Cultural Cooperation (SPCC), is open once again to receive applications for the Grant Year (GY) 2013.

The program is a collaborative effort between the Ministry of Education, Culture and Sports and the universities in the Philippines and academic institutions in the Pacific Islands, designed to foster closer ties between Spain, the Philippines and the Pacific Islands through the works of scholars in the areas of Humanities and the Social Sciences.

The Program considers applications from a broad range of projects in the Humanities and Social Sciences which study and articulate the shared heritage and the shared future of Spain, the Philippines and the Pacific Islands. It also awards grants for studies in Spain, either historical or contemporary. This year, the Executive Committee will look with great interest at applications which focus on the following areas:

- a. Contemporary Spain: modernization, democratization, migration and ethnic diversity, social services, and regional organizations;
- b. Comparative Studies of Spain and the Philippines, or the Pacific Islands;
- c. Spanish Language: didactics, borrowings;
- d. The Performing Arts and the Cinema;
- e. Preservation of Cultural Heritage; and
- f. Urban Planning.

This Program awards financial support (up to around US$ 2,500.00) to project the study and promote shared heritage and shared future.

Application forms can be downloaded to get further information on the different types of grants (research grants, publication projects, cultural activities, conferences, symposia and seminar).
