TWO-WEEK UK-BASED STUDY PROGRAMME ON PAY
AND GRADING: STRATEGIES FOR CHANGE

The Public Administration International (PAI) will hold its Two-Week UK-Based Study Programme on Pay and Grading: Strategies for Change on September 16-27, 2013 in Central London.

The Study Programme aims to:

1. introduce to the participants the UK programme of reform in the public sector and, in particular current approaches being adopted to pay and reward packages;
2. enable them to understand motivational aspects at work and identify the key drivers for change; and
3. examine them the changing relationship between worth, value and reward at work.

This is designed mainly for the policy-makers, human resource practitioners and senior decision-makers involved in pay and grading.
