CANDIDATURES FOR THE 49TH SESSION OF THE UNESCO-IIEP'S ADVANCED TRAINING PROGRAMME IN EDUCATIONAL PLANNING AND MANAGEMENT

The United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO)-International Institute for Educational Planning (IIEP) is inviting candidatures for the 49th session of its Advanced Training Programme in Educational Planning and Management (2013-2014) which will run from October 21, 2013 to June 27, 2014 at the IIEP Paris in France.

This Advanced Training Programme is an intensive 8-month programme in educational planning and management that leads to the IIEP international certification at Diploma or Master's Level. This practiced oriented program is designed to respond to capacity development needs of the UNESCO member-states.

This is intended in particular to any official authority who are interested in the IIEP Advanced Training Programme including those from the Department of Education (DepEd), Finance and Planning, civil service organizations, national research and training institutions involved in education policy research or having relevant programmes for national trainers as well as those from National Commission for UNESCO. Female candidates are strongly encouraged to apply.

The Announcement and Application Form are available from the IIEP website at the following address: <http://www.iiep.unesco.org>.

The Application Form must be completed and submitted online and other required documents must be forwarded as instructed on the form. The deadline for submission of applications is on May 31, 2013.
