SECOND SALUBUNGAN WORKSHOP: “TATAK EPPN AKO, ITO ANG TAYA KO!”

The EDSA People Power Network (EPPNetwork) has launched one of its major projects, the EDSA People Power Network (EPPNetwork) that aims to synergize all organizations involved in volunteerism to work together in implementing socio-civic programs in a specific community.

In this connection, the EPPC will conduct the Second Salubungan Workshop: “Tatak EPPN Ako, Ito Ang Taya Ko!” on December 5-7, 2013. The Salubungan Workshop aims to:

The Salubungan Workshop aims to:

1. provide a venue where organizations from different parts of the country come together and celebrate the spirit of volunteerism and love of country;
2. foster a community of change-makers and nation-builders by being open and by actively participating during workshop sessions;
3. understand and harness the values and ideals brought about by the EDSA People Power Revolution in creating projects in their respective communities;
4. share their practices in organizing activities, especially those of the recognized organizations of the EPPNetwork;
5. award newly recognized organizations of the EPPNetwork and encourage more organizations to participate; and
6. design the EPPNetwork Plan of Action for the 28th Anniversary of the EDSA People Power Revolution.

The target participants to this activity are students from the secondary schools nationwide.

Participation of both public and private schools shall be subject to the no-disruption-of-classes policy as stipulated in DepEd Order No. 9, s. 2005 entitled Instituting Measures to Increase Engaged Time-on-Task and Ensuring Compliance Therewith. This is also subject to the no-collection policy as stated in Section 3 of Republic Act No. 5546, An Act Prohibiting the Sale of tickets and/or the Collection of Contributions for Whatever Project or Purpose from Students and Teachers of Public and Private Schools, Colleges and University (Ganzon Law).
