2014 INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON APPLIED LINGUISTICS AND LANGUAGE
EDUCATION (ICALLE)

The Department of English and Applied Linguistics, De La Salle University (DLSU)-Manila will conduct the 2014 International Conference on Applied Linguistics and Language Education (ICALLE) on October 16-18, 2014 at the Henry Sy, Sr. Hall, DLSU Campus, Taft Avenue, Manila.

The Conference aims to strengthen the interface between research in applied linguistics and language education. Specifically, it aims to:

1. share findings of applied linguistic research and their implications for and applications to language education in different contexts;
2. facilitate the sharing of ideas about how applied linguistics can help language educators foster enduring understanding among learners across levels- elementary, secondary, and tertiary;
3. update participants with innovative methods and strategies in teaching a language and assessing language learning; and
4. help in establishing a network of applied linguists, language researchers, language educators and trainers, graduate and undergraduate students throughout the world.

The language teachers, language researchers and school administrators from both public and private schools nationwide are invited to attend this activity.

Proposals for a concurrent paper presentation or for a teaching presentation should consist of a maximum of 250 words. Proposals with more than two co-authors will not be accepted. A proponent may submit a maximum of two proposals. These must be sent with 50-word bio-note to email address: ICALLE2014@gmail.com. The deadline for submission of abstracts is on February 28, 2014.

Participation of both public and private schools shall be subject to the no-disruption-of-classes policy as stipulated in DepEd Order No. 9, s. 2005 entitled Instituting Measures to Increase Engaged Time-on-Task and Ensuring Compliance Therewith.
