2014-2015 MASTER PROGRAMMES IN DEVELOPMENT STUDIES

The Institute of Development Policy and Management (IOB) of the University of Antwerp in Belgium announces its three full time one-year Master's programmes with a high degree of specialization and a distinct focus on: Development Evaluation and Management, (2) Governance and Development, and Globalization and Development.

The Programmes aim to offer a policy-oriented training, which incorporates the latest insights from social science disciplines relevant to the development challenge.

The target participants to this activity are mid-career development professionals from low-income and lower middle-income countries, whose previous academic backgrounds and career record suggest that they will significantly profit from an advanced international training. Students from developed countries, who are already working in or wish to pursue a career in development, and who have some field experience, are also invited to apply.
