2014 HARVARD KENNEDY SCHOOL EXECUTIVE EDUCATION PROGRAM

The Harvard Kennedy School is now accepting applicants for the 2014 Executive Education Program.

The Harvard Kennedy School Executive Education offers a global curriculum focused on generating powerful ideas to help people, communities, and nations solve the world's most pressing public problems.

The Program is open to accept applicants who are accomplished leaders working in the public, private, and nonprofit sectors around the world. The participants come from all backgrounds: elected legislators, ministers of government, senior executive civil servants, state governors, uniformed military officers, state and local administrators, police and fire chiefs, and top executives from corporate and nonprofit organizations.

Admission to Executive Education Program is based on professional achievement and organizational responsibility.
