CALL FOR SUBMISSION OF EDUCATION FOR INTERNATIONAL
UNDERSTANDING (EIU) BEST PRACTICES 2014

The Asia-Pacific Centre of Education for International Understanding (APCEIU) under the auspices of UNESCO Calls for Submission of Education for International Understanding (EIU) Best Practices 2014 on or before April 30, 2014 at the National Commission for UNESCO or UNESCO Field Offices or designated APCEIU partner organizations.

The APCEIU continuously promotes EIU towards a Culture of Peace in the Asia-Pacific region. In order to carry out its mandate, APCEIU has made various efforts ranging from training workshops to the development of education resources on EIU to enhance the capacity of the 47 Member States on this respective issue.

Suitable applicants must be educational practitioners in the Asia-Pacific region, who have by now implemented innovative EIU programmes for at least one year and are able to report on their own initiatives. They are encouraged to share their educational practices and experiences to promote education for a Culture of Peace. Recommended cases will enter the open competition.

A screening committee will select the best cases, and announce the result on May 22, 2014 and the Best Practices Award APCEIU will grant One Thousand US Dollars (USD 1,000) to each winner for further support on the programme.
