INTERNATIONAL SUMMER CAMP ON EDUCATION FOR SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT (ESD)

The Philippine Normal University (PNU)-Center for Transformative Education and Asian Network of Youth Volunteers-Philippine Chapter will spearhead the International Summer Camp on Education for Sustainable Development (ESD Camp) with the theme Harnessing the Gains of UN Decade of Education for Sustainable Development: Motive Forward from May 14 to 17, 2014 at Coron Village Lodge, Coron, Palawan. This is in support of the United Nations Decade of Education for Sustainable Development (UN-DESD 2005-2014).

The Camp aims to mobilize 200 educators and youth leaders in the Asia Pacific Region to promote volunteerism among young people especially in the achievement of the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) beyond 2015 using ESD methodologies.

The ESD Camp includes the following activities:

1. Cultural Solidarity Presentation;
2. Whole-day Island Hopping Tour of Coron;
3. Teambuilding and Community Immersions; and
4. Plenary Sessions and simultaneous workshops on MDGs, Human Rights and ESD.

The target participants are public secondary school teachers and student government leaders nationwide.
