THIRD PRINCIPALS' CONFERENCE OF FIT-SCHOOLS IN SOUTHEAST ASIA
AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND

The Goethe-Institut Philippinen will conduct its Third Principals' Conference of Fit-Schools in Southeast Asia, Australia and New Zealand with the theme Bilingualism or Plurilingualism, that is the Question from October 16 to 18, 2014 at the RELC, International Hotel, Orange Grove Road, Singapore.

The Conference aims to:

1. establish a closer relationship between the host countries and Germany; and
2. bring together people and institutes from different countries by gaining proficiency on the German language and by obtaining familiarization on Germany and its educational system.

The Conference will be conducted in the form of presentations, debates, workshops and exhibitions. The working language will be English.

The target participants are school principals of the 58 Fit-Schools from eight countries, including school heads or principals from both public and private schools nationwide.

The entire visit will be sponsored by Goethe-Institut. Travel, boarding and lodging will be shouldered by the Goethe-Institut.
