SEMINAR-WORKSHOP ON HISTORY AS A WISDOM AND CITIZENSHIP COURSE:
APPROACHES TO TEACHING HISTORY IN THE K TO 12 CURRICULUM

The University of Asia and the Pacific (UA&P) will hold its Seminar-Workshop on History as a Wisdom and Citizenship Course: Approaches to Teaching History in the K to 12 Curriculum from May 14 to 16, 2015 at the UA&P Campus, Pearl Drive, Ortigas Center, Pasig City.

The Seminar aims to:

1. help the participants understand the relevance of teaching History course as a wisdom and citizenship course;
2. demonstrate to them how to make use of specific topics in History course to teach citizenship;
3. share with them some of the best practices concerning teaching approaches and assessment tools in Social Studies; and
4. provide them with skills which the students can develop/learn by studying History, such as critical thinking and the ability to integrate various historical components which helped shape the world today.

The target participants are teachers from public elementary and secondary schools.

Participation of both public and private schools shall be subject to the no-disruption-of-classes policy stipulated in DepEd Order No. 9, s. 2005 entitled Instituting Measures to Increase Engaged Time-on-Task and Ensuring Compliance Therewith.
